1. Aircraft have several times been seen flying over Canton at high speeds and high altitudes. They usually fly singly or in groups of three or five. Local observers believe they are not jets because they do not make a "screeching" sound.
2. Approximately 400 crates of air force equipment and aircraft parts have arrived at White Cloud Airfield, where the parts are being assembled by Soviet technicians.*
3. Hsinching (103-49, 30-25) Airfield, Szechwan, has been enlarged and is in operation.
4. [redacted] the former American B-29 base at Paishihi (106-22, 29-30), Szechwan, was also in operation. Forty thousand workers have been mobilized to repair the field in two months. The Chinese Communists have announced that a large number of Soviet bombers are to arrive soon.
5. [redacted] the construction of underground hangars at White Cloud and T'ienho Airfields was completed. They are capable of housing 300 planes and are connected with their respective fields by tunnels.
